

Language Identification Organizer

Listen closely and check off each sentence or partial sentence as you hear it.

- [ ] we went to Indonesia, where the yarn was spun for the fabric of the t-shirt.
- [ ] And why has Bangladesh gotten so popular?
- [ ] Save me from doing laundry, being too lazy.
- [ ] The room is big and bright and filled with women sewing clothes.
- [ ] They make t-shirts for Jockey, the underwear company that's helping us make our t-shirt.
- [ ] How much did it cost to make our shirt?
- [ ] Whole shirt. One big shirt is $2.
- [ ] Seventy-five percent of the commerce.
- [ ] But mainly, it's people: managers, supervisors, and the many, many workers, all crammed into just 50 cents.
- [ ] Compared to the other countries.
- [ ] the question of what the workers should be paid dominated the conversation.
- [ ] With this rise, maybe their situation will improve a little bit, but not much.
- [ ] her biggest fear is that her customers will go somewhere else.
- [ ] It depends on relevance to the rest of the world, to be honest with you.
- [ ] If you're making cotton t-shirts and cotton goes up by that much, it's hard to not pass that cost on to the end customer.
- [ ] There's no place to get it cheaper.
- [ ] But because labor's part in that equation is so small