

Language Identification Organizer

Listen closely and check off each sentence or partial sentence as you hear it.

- It used to be if you were a halibut fishermen in Homer, Ak., there were just a few days a year you could go do it
- ou went roaring out of these storms, and you caught all you could catch
- Kirk Van Doren is a commercial fisherman
- All of a sudden we took one, and we're not coming back up, water's all over the deck
- It's the Coast Guard airplane, and that's when you really think you're going to survive
- It was murder by government, you might say
- Instead of having fishermen race in these 24-hour sprints, they would be guaranteed a certain amount of fish at the beginning of the year
- Clem thought the catch should be shared among the boat owners and captains
- Clem wanted the best boats to buy up the shares from the less efficient ones
- Fishing used to be crowded, but we don't see another commercial fishing boat the whole day, just a few whales and otters